Call for Abstracts Proposal Form

2027 National Society of Allied Health Annual Conference and Meeting
Florida Agricultural and Mechanical University
Tallahassee, Florida

Title of Presentation (all CAPS):

Name of Primary Presenter (first, middle initial, surname):

List credentials to be printed with name (BA, MMS, DPT):

Highest Degree Earned: Institutional Affiliation:

Profession:

Address:

Telephone: E-mail Address

Biographical Sketch of Primary Presenter - approx 200 words (See example below on Pg 2)

Audiovisual needs for presentation:

Presentation Preference (select one): Platform ☐ Poster ☐

Will you have a co-presenter(s)
(if yes, please fill out co-presenter(s) information on pages 2-5 as applicable) Yes ☐ No ☐

Abstract (no more than 250 words, single-spaced, formatted in Times New Roman, 12 point font)

Secondary Presenter (Co-presenter 1) Information

Name of Co-presenter 1 (first, middle initial, surname):

List credentials to be printed with name (BA, MMS, DPT):

Highest Degree Earned: Institutional Affiliation:

Profession:

Address:

Telephone: E-mail Address

Biographical Sketch of Secondary Presenter (Co-presenter 1) - approx 200 words (See example below)

Biographical Sketch Example Below (Primary and Secondary Presenter):

Gloria L. Rogers, PT, MMS, DPT. Dr. Rogers is a retired physical therapy educator, currently serving as Executive Director of the NSAH. She has extensive experience in teaching, administration, and clinical practice. During her career she has served as the Chairperson of the Department of Physical Therapy, College of Allied Health Sciences at Howard University and as Program Director of the Physical Therapy Program in the College of Medicine and Health Sciences at George Washington University, both in Washington, DC. She has served on several professional and community boards and commissions, including board member of the National Commission on Orthotic and Prosthetic Education, Chairperson of the Physical Therapy Examining Board of Washington, DC, and President of the Board of Directors of the Capital City Area Health Education Center. Her physical therapy experiences and scholarly interests are in the evaluation and treatment of musculoskeletal dysfunction, health promotion and wellness during the aging process, and community education.

Co-Presenter 2 Information

Name of Co-presenter 2 (first, middle initial, surname):

List credentials to be printed with name (BA, MMS, DPT):

Highest Degree Earned: Institutional Affiliation:

Profession:

Address:

Telephone: E-mail Address

Biographical Sketch of Co-Presenter 2 - approx 200 words (See example below)

Biographical Sketch Example Below (Primary and Secondary Presenter):

Gloria L. Rogers, PT, MMS, DPT. Dr. Rogers is a retired physical therapy educator, currently serving as Executive Director of the NSAH. She has extensive experience in teaching, administration, and clinical practice. During her career she has served as the Chairperson of the Department of Physical Therapy, College of Allied Health Sciences at Howard University and as Program Director of the Physical Therapy Program in the College of Medicine and Health Sciences at George Washington University, both in Washington, DC. She has served on several professional and community boards and commissions, including board member of the National Commission on Orthotic and Prosthetic Education, Chairperson of the Physical Therapy Examining Board of Washington, DC, and President of the Board of Directors of the Capital City Area Health Education Center. Her physical therapy experiences and scholarly interests are in the evaluation and treatment of musculoskeletal dysfunction, health promotion and wellness during the aging process, and community education.

Co-Presenter 3 Information

Name of Co-presenter3 (first, middle initial, surname):

List credentials to be printed with name (BA, MMS, DPT):

Highest Degree Earned: Institutional Affiliation:

Profession:

Address:

Telephone: E-mail Address

Biographical Sketch of Co-Presenter 3 - approx 200 words (See example below)

Biographical Sketch Example Below (Primary and Secondary Presenter):

Gloria L. Rogers, PT, MMS, DPT. Dr. Rogers is a retired physical therapy educator, currently serving as Executive Director of the NSAH. She has extensive experience in teaching, administration, and clinical practice. During her career she has served as the Chairperson of the Department of Physical Therapy, College of Allied Health Sciences at Howard University and as Program Director of the Physical Therapy Program in the College of Medicine and Health Sciences at George Washington University, both in Washington, DC. She has served on several professional and community boards and commissions, including board member of the National Commission on Orthotic and Prosthetic Education, Chairperson of the Physical Therapy Examining Board of Washington, DC, and President of the Board of Directors of the Capital City Area Health Education Center. Her physical therapy experiences and scholarly interests are in the evaluation and treatment of musculoskeletal dysfunction, health promotion and wellness during the aging process, and community education.

Co-Presenter 4 Information

Name of Co-Presenter 4 (first, middle initial, surname):

List credentials to be printed with name (BA, MMS, DPT):

Highest Degree Earned: Institutional Affiliation:

Profession:

Address:

Telephone: E-mail Address

Biographical Sketch of Co-Presenter 4 - approx 200 words (See example below)

Biographical Sketch Example Below (Primary and Secondary Presenter):

Gloria L. Rogers, PT, MMS, DPT. Dr. Rogers is a retired physical therapy educator, currently serving as Executive Director of the NSAH. She has extensive experience in teaching, administration, and clinical practice. During her career she has served as the Chairperson of the Department of Physical Therapy, College of Allied Health Sciences at Howard University and as Program Director of the Physical Therapy Program in the College of Medicine and Health Sciences at George Washington University, both in Washington, DC. She has served on several professional and community boards and commissions, including board member of the National Commission on Orthotic and Prosthetic Education, Chairperson of the Physical Therapy Examining Board of Washington, DC, and President of the Board of Directors of the Capital City Area Health Education Center. Her physical therapy experiences and scholarly interests are in the evaluation and treatment of musculoskeletal dysfunction, health promotion and wellness during the aging process, and community education.